HEALTH OFFICER'S REPORT.

Fifteen New Cases of Measles—Schools to Be Fumigated Before School Opens.

City Health Officer Dr. W. P. S. Keating, has had fifteen new cases of measles reported to him so far this month. Only four cases were reported during June, which was small, so the health officer believes. Three cases of diphtheria and one of tuberculosis have also been reported in July, but there are no new cases of whooping cough, or which there were 39 during June.

In view of the prevalence of measles it is the intention of the health officer to have the school houses thoroughly fumigated before the opening of the fall term.

Dr. Keating has received many complaints about various nuisances, such as ash and garbage piles, but in every instance when the health officer has called the attention of landowners to such neglect on their part, the obnoxious and unsightly heaps of refuse were quickly removed.

A. G. Turner Company Incorporated.

A certificate of incorporation of the A. G. Turner company of Willimantic was received by A. G. Turner Wednesday morning. Business under the new name began the first of the present month.

When asked as to the change of name Mr. Turner said it was simply a more modern way of doing business. According to the articles the company may manufacture silk and cotton goods. Mr. Turner stated regarding the latter that while the company did not at the present time contemplate manufacturing any it could do so if occasion required without changing the articles of incorporation.

Mr. Turner started in the silk throwing business in this city June 1, 1909, and was located on Center street in the building now occupied by the Catholic club and other organizations.

and two years later removed to the fine modern brick mill on Bank street between Valley and Meadow streets. Twenty-five hands were employed at the start; now there are from 35 to 50 during busy times.

The incorporators are Arthur G. Turner, Alice May Turner and Mary Alice Turner. Officers have not been elected yet but this matter will be attended to soon.

GOING TO INDIANA.

L. H. Oldershaw to Establish an Automobile Agency.

L. H. Oldershaw starts today for Monticello, Ind., where he is to establish an automobile agency. He is to have a territory covering five counties and has already been given the exclusive agency for a number of leading cars on the market. His father is located in the same place in the thread business. Mr. Oldershaw was at one time a conductor for the Connecticut company in Norwich, but for the past year has been working for various automobile concerns with a view to opening the agency that calls him to leave the Thread city. Many local friends wish him much success in his new venture.
